What I Know & What I Want to Learn

Before we begin the research process, we are going to spend a few days brainstorming topics and forming research groups of no more than 3 or 4. This WS is due at the beginning of the hour, Thursday, February 6, 2020.

What is Tikkun Olam? What does it mean? What are examples of topics that could fall under this category?

On your own, brainstorm topics that you would like to research. Please come up with a list of no less than 3 potential topics and your knowledge of each.

Topic	Topic #1:	Topic #2:	Topic #3:
Why Why I want to research this topic and what I want to learn more about.
What What I already know about this topic.

With your group, narrow down your research topic. What did you decide on? Why? Explain.

On your own, record the information you already know about your topic as well as information you'd like to learn more about. This will be the blueprint for your research. ☺

Topic What issue is your group researching?
Tikkun Olam How does this topic relate back to the theme, "Tikkun Olam"?
What I Know What do you already know about your topic? What drew you to research this particular issue? In this section, you should be discussing any and all information you already know about your topic – this can include information you gathered from your preliminary research.
What I Want to Learn What do you want to learn about your topic? What are excited to research? In this section, you should be discussing any and all information you want to find out about your topic – this can include questions you gathered from your preliminary research.
